GREGORY H. WOODS, United States District Judge:

Plaintiff has filed a third amended complaint in this case on the docket. Dkt. No. 89.¹ That amended complaint, however, does not comply with the Court's prior order concerning the scope of Plaintiff's leave to amend. In that order, which dismissed Plaintiff's second amended complaint in part, Plaintiff was granted leave "to replead (a) his malicious prosecution claim against Defendant Fontanez and (b) his municipal liability claim against the City of New York." Dkt. No. 84 at 17. And Plaintiff was specifically "advised that any amended complaint must comply with the Court's guidance" concerning the scope of leave to amend. Id. at 18.

Plaintiff's third amended complaint, however, attempts to add two new defendants—Matthew Klimasaskas and Jose L. Velez. It is, accordingly, plainly not within the scope of the Court's order concerning repleading. As it does not comply with the Court's prior order, it will be denied, and the Court will proceed with Plaintiff's second amended complaint as the active complaint in this case. See Dkt. No. 58. The Court will enter a separate order scheduling an initial pretrial conference in this case for Plaintiff's surviving claim—malicious prosecution as pleaded against Defendant James Merchant, see Dkt. No. 84 at 11–14—and to discuss the ongoing process of identifying and serving the John Doe defendants described in Plaintiff's second amended complaint, see Dkt. No. 85.²

The Clerk of Court is directed to remove Benjamin Fontanez, Jose L. Velez, and Matthew Klimasauskas from the caption of this case, and to mail a copy of this order to Plaintiff.

SO ORDERED.

² It is evident from the face of Plaintiff's third amended complaint that the added defendants are not the defendants previously described as John Doe defendants in Plaintiff's second amended complaint.
